

MEET YOUR Nurse Practitioner...

BONNIE COBURN, APN

WHY I BECAME A NURSE

"My decision to become a nurse came during my first hospital experience in labor and delivery. It was then that I knew I wanted to offer a caring, healing hand for those who needed it. As my nursing developed through time and experience I hungered for a more advanced role in the healing process as a nurse practitioner."

MS: Illinois State University, Normal, Nursing

BS: Lakeview College of Nursing, Danville, IL
