

Meet Your Pain Management Specialist

Sara Royston James, MS, MD, PhD, DABA

Pain is such a personal and incompletely understood area of medicine. I love the opportunity to combine the art of medicine with the most cutting edge technology to improve patients' everyday lives.

Why I Chose Health Care

"I was a scientist before becoming a physician and saw a real opportunity to compassionately apply all of the amazing advancements that have been made to improving patient care. I love connecting with patients and working with them towards a more pain free life."
