

Meet Your OB/GYN

Christine Lusby, MD

At a young age I was exposed to the poor health outcomes of family members and my surrounding community. Due to my experiences, it touched my heart to serve people in a capacity to bring forth excellence in health care and overall health.

Why I Chose Health Care

No other speciality offered me the opportunity to serve women during different stages of their lives. I love being alongside a family to bring a new life into this world.
