

Meet Your Internal Medicine Physician

Sijo Sunny, MD

Why I Became a Medical Provider

My childhood experiences with severe asthma, which frequently necessitated hospital visits for treatments, allowed me to witness the remarkable efficacy of medications. I was in awe of how doctors swiftly alleviated my breathing difficulties within minutes. These experiences, combined with the compassionate care I received, strongly influenced my decision to pursue a career in medicine.

Residency

Internal Medicine, Carle Foundation Hospital, Urbana, IL

MD

Rostov State Medical University, Russian Federation

Certification

Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support, Basic Life Support

Professional Memberships

American Medical Association

Department of Internal Medicine

In the Department of Internal Medicine Dr. Sunny provides comprehensive medical care for patients 18 years and older with an emphasis on wellness and preventative care and is trained in the diagnosis, evaluation and treatment of medical conditions that commonly occur from late adolescence through the geriatric years.

Language

English, Malayalam, Hindi, Tamil

Outside of work, I enjoy gardening, running, fish keeping, yoga.

With a passion for delivering comprehensive and compassionate care, I am dedicated to building lasting relationships with patients.

