

Meet Your Family Medicine Provider

Haydee J. Stewart, MD

As a physician, I'm also a teacher. I like to educate my patients so they know more about their illness, and they are empowered to follow through on their treatment plan. Establishing a good personal relationship with my patients helps me better understand their needs and allows me to give them the best of care.

Why I chose Healthcare

"My mother tells me I wanted to be a doctor since the first grade. I remember being young and visiting family members in the hospital and being impressed by what they did."
