

Meet Your Physician Assistant

Kenneth M. Evans, PA-C

Why I Chose Health Care

I chose to pursue a career in gastroenterology because it offers the opportunity to treat and educate patients; promote preventative medicine; improve quality of life; and establish meaningful relationships with a wide variety of patients over time.

Education

Master of Physician Assistant Studies, Southern Illinois University School of Medicine, Carbondale, IL

Bachelor's Degree Molecular and Cellular Biology, Minor: Chemistry, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, Urbana, IL

Certifications

AGA, AAPA, IAPA

Department of Gastroenterology

In the Department of Gastroenterology, Kenneth treats patients with gastrointestinal conditions and concerns.

Awards

UIUC James Scholar

I enjoy fitness, art, playing guitar, learning languages, traveling, and spending time with family and friends.

With a passion for delivering compassionate and quality care, I am dedicated to ensuring the well-being of my patients by educating and empowering them to take charge of their health.

