

Meet Your Family Nurse Practitioner

Darby Pfoff, FNP

Why I Chose Health Care

I picked healthcare because I have always loved science as well as helping others.

BS

Nursing, Illinois State University, Normal, IL

MSN

Ball State University, Muncie, IN

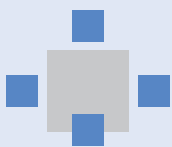

Certification

Family Nurse Practitioner Certification from American Association of Nurse Practitioners

Department of Cardiology

In the department of Cardiology, Darby Pfoff diagnoses and treats diseases of the heart and blood vessels using cardiac diagnostic exams and testing for common cardiovascular conditions.

I want my patients to feel as if they are in caring, knowledgeable hands. It is especially important to me that my patients view our relationship as a partnership in which we are working together to achieve their optimal level of health. I believe I can best serve my patients in achieving this type of relationship by remaining non-judgmental, compassionate, and empathetic. Additionally, it is very important to me to stay up to date with the latest advances in research so I am providing my patients the highest quality level of care possible.
